After 20 years of visiting Shark Bay regularly as a tourist, I decided, in 2012, to move here permanently and become part of this small friendly community.

I have worked in the tourism industry for over 20 years as a photographer, travel writer, publisher, graphic designer and tour operator. After moving to Shark Bay I founded the tour business Naturetime Tours which offers guided 4WD tours with the focus on nature. I feel very privileged in having one of the best offices in the world: the Australian bush. I operate not only locally in Shark Bay but also take private customers on wildlife and photography tours to other regions of Australia.

As a dedicated conservationist and a knowledgeable naturalist I have been a local representative on the Shark Bay World Heritage Advisory Committee and as such have raised many important local issues.
